

CALL OUT

While the pandemic is raging and we are staying away because we cannot get together, we will create new places to meet. There are good reasons to avoid contact, but equally important reasons why we must keep connected. Share our strengths. We do not know how long our everyday will be in an exception, but we hope this radio can keep us awake and responsive at the same time. A kind of droplet community in development where we can be together individually, and merge our voices from near and far. Touching each other again.

We hope you will share your dreams from the night and of the future, and we invite you to send all kinds of features of everyday life under the corona. It may be the sounds of your room, your soundtrack in isolation, the voices of your neighbour, memes from your feed, or a bit of silence on your walk.

yes - we hope to receive calls, dreams, reflections, analysis, poetry - all kinds of reports from the everyday life during the corona.

At the moment, we call it Droplet radio

Broadcasting a couple of evenings a week. For now, it will be Friday and Monday. Contact us if you have an idea or something you want to share. Send your contribution as an audio file and we will bring it.
